Bengal drug has kept steady in price, with good amount of business dong, chiefly in New ) Patna; Malwa has been in more enquiry by foreigners at $625 First quality drug is held for $630. The following are the closing rates: -New Patna, $5882 to $5724, cash and gredit and 5772 of the 8th sales to arrive; Old Patna, $550 nominal, New Benares, $5624 to $5634 little doing; Old Benaves, none; Malwa, $630. A telegram dated Unlcutta, 27th July, quotes Patna at about Rupees, 1265. The atcamer United Service, which left Calcutta on the 28th July, had put back, owing to her having bad coals: she was to leave again in twor three days, Captain Oates, having the greater portion of ports was again limited, and the market showed signs of much depression, the Dealers continning to hold off in view of expected auction

Sales from recent arrivals. There was, how-eyer, some slight demand for 6 and 7 lbs. T-Cloths at low rates. In Cotton, there bes been nothing doing, dealers having quite descreed the market for the present. The smallness of the business transacted is to be account. ed for in a measure by the arrival of the English mail, and the close departure of the French and Northern mails. Private telegrams to 24th July, however, read favourably for Imports. Shirtings being quoted at 12s. and Yarn at 16d. There is little to report in shares. A sale of 20 Old Banks is noted at 34 per cent. premium. The feeling for them bus been improved since the issue of the Report.
